

LOGAN IN OHIO.

ADDRESSING THOUSANDS AT AKRON.

TWO HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL MEETINGS—A POLITICAL AND TRADES PROCESSION.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

AKRON, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Akron's 25,000 people, augmented by 30,000 of the best Republicans of Northern Ohio, did honor to-day to the man who is to share with James G. Blaine in the triumphs of the English provinces. Mr. LeMoyne and Mr. Whiffen play the heroines, father and son, in their latest comedy, "Mr. and Mrs. Baileys," the play young the woman grace and the lover. Mrs. Whiffen and Miss Ogle Brandon play the leading female parts.

Acting for the Measers, Spangler, Gustave Frohman has been controlling interest in the fortunes of the Judd Comedy Theatre. The first play to be produced under the new management will be a version by W. C. Fields of the old "Professor." The second will be a farce.

Mr. Gillie's play is in three acts, but he is understood, proceeded upon entirely different lines from either of the other two. His company is already popular, and it is unnecessary to add that Mr. Gillie himself will be present in the title part to repeat his success in "The Professor."

DR. DAMEOSCH GETS A CHORUS-MASTER.

NEWS WAS RECEIVED YESTERDAY BY SECRETARY STANTON OF THE METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE, FROM DAMROCH, TO THE EFFECT THAT HE HAD FINALLY COMPLETED HIS CONTRACT WITH THE MANAGEMENT OF THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE.

MR. GILLIE'S PLAY IS IN THREE ACTS, BUT HE IS UNDERSTOOD, PROCEEDED UPON ENTIRELY DIFFERENT LINES FROM EITHER OF THE OTHER TWO.

HIS COMPANY IS ALREADY POPULAR, AND IT IS UNNECESSARY TO ADD THAT DR. GILLIE HIMSELF WILL BE PRESENT IN THE TITLE PART TO REPEAT HIS SUCCESS IN "THE PROFESSOR."

GENERAL LOGAN IN OHIO.

THE DISPATCH PRINTED ON MONDAY ANNOUNCING THE DEPARTURE FROM LIVERPOOL ON THE CITY OF ROME OF MADAME NILSSON WAS RECEIVED IN MUSICAL CIRCLES WITH MUCH INCHERITY, FOR IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO CONVEY WHY SHE SHOULD SUDDENLY DEPART AT SUCH A TIME.

THE MYSTERY WAS SOLVED BY THE SECOND DISPATCH, RECEIVED YESTERDAY, WHICH ADVISED THAT SHE WOULD BE KNOWN AT THE STOCKHOLM MEETING ON OCTOBER 2.

MISS NILSSON'S PLANS.

GENERAL LOGAN ARRIVED AT 10:00 o'clock ON A SPECIAL TRAIN FROM CANTON.

AT THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, HE WAS MET BY A CROWD THAT FOLLOWED AND CHEERED ALL THE WAY TO HIS HOTEL.

IMMEDIATELY THE MARCHING BODIES WERE DRAWN UP IN LINE, AND AT NOON THE PROCESSION MOVED WITH HIM AT ITS HEAD.

AFTER HIM CAME THE ORGANIZATIONS ALREADY ENUMERATED, WITH BANDS OF MUSIC DISTRIBUTED AT INTERVALS.

FOLLOWING WAS ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING FEATURES OF THE DAY—THE INDUSTRIAL DISPLAY.

MORE THAN FIFTY WAGONS WERE IN LINE, EACH REPRESENTING ONE OF AKRON'S VARIED INDUSTRIES, AND CARRYING ITS APPROPRIATE MACHINERY IN FULL OPERATION.

AMID THE FIRING OF SALUTES BY THE LOCAL BATTERY THE PROCESSION PASSED THROUGH THE PRINCIPAL STREETS, WHICH WERE DECKED WITH THE NATIONAL COLORS AND THRONGED WITH SPECTATORS.

GENERAL LOGAN WAS HONOURED WITH A GREETING ALL THE LONG LINE, AND AS EACH NEW FEATURE OF THE PARADE APPEARED IT WAS APPLAUDED.

TO THE ECHO. ALTHOUGH A DRIZZLING RAIN HAD SET IN, THE CROWD BRAVED IT DURING THE ENTIRE HOUR OCCUPIED IN THE PASSAGE OF THE PARADE.

THERE WERE, IT IS ESTIMATED, 7,000 PERSONS IN THE PROCESSION.

WILLIAM McKNIGHT, WHEREVER HE WAS SEEN, WAS APPLAUDED VIGOROUSLY, AND ON EVERY BANNER AND EVERY TONGUE HIS NAME WAS ASSOCIATED WITH THOSE OF THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

NOWHERE IN THE WORLD IS NILSSON SUCH A FAVOURITE AS IN AMERICA. SHE KNOWS THAT, AND IS anxious to come to us.

GENERAL LOGAN'S ADDRESS.

SUDDEN SILENCE.

FROM THE NEW-YORK EVENING POST.

THERE WAS AN OUTBURST OF INTEREST AFTER THE ELECTION IN VERMONT, AND THE NEW-YORK CORRESPONDENT OF THE LONDON NEWS TELEGRAPHED THAT THE DECLINE OF CLEVELAND, AND EVEN EXPRESSION OF DISAPPROVAL OF THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE, WAS THE FIRST SIGN OF A REVIVAL.

IT IS REMARKABLE THAT THE ELECTION IN MAINE DOES NOT SEEM TO HAVE INTERESTED THE BRITISH PRESS. WE HAVE LOOKED THROUGH THE LATEST LONDON JOURNAL AND FOUND NO ATTENTION PAID TO IT, NOR ANYTHING IN THE TELEGRAMS. NO ATTEMPTS WHATSOEVER ARE MADE TO IMPROVE THE OCCASION EDITORIALLY.

THE SYSTEMATIC SLAUGHTER OF THE BRITISH PRESS JUST NOW SHOWS HOW THE IRISH AFFAIR IS LESS INTERESTING AND INSTRUCTIVE THAN THE IRISH AFFAIR.

THEIR IMMEDIATE INTEREST THERE WAS DISPLAYED IN THEM IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

IT IS IN THE MATTERS OF IRISH POLITICS THAT THEY ARE INTERESTED, AND IT IS THEREFORE THAT THEY ARE SO FAR AS CONCERNED, OF NO CONSEQUENCE.

IT WOULD BE APPROPRIATE TO CALL THEIR ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT WHILE SUBSTANTIALLY THE SAME AS THE ELECTION OF MAY 30 IN IRELAND, IT IS NOT THE SAME.

THEIR ATTENTION HAS BEEN DRAWN DOWNSIDE UPON THEM.

<div data-bbox="35 135